BAND STORY

"The history of CHAOS THEORY dates back to the year 2004, when Alex Besne And Fer Olguin started playing with two another musicians. After a short time the other two guys left the band, so Fer and Alex still played as a duo. They started an extensive search for new members without much success; many players came and auditioned for the band but no one were deemed suitable for the band and the line up was again reduced to the duo of Fer and Alex. After few months the boys began searching again for members for the band, which back then was called "Chaos Orchestra". Then, in 2005, a new guitar player was found in Erubey Bello, who contacted the singer Otman.Otman brought Oscar (GUARNERIOUS) as a drummer , whose girlfriend, Vanessa, played the bass, so the band was for the first time complete. At that time the band decided to change its name to "Chaos Theory". The band played in a couple of gigs but Erubey had to left us,Oscar and Vanessa too, so the seraching started again After a while Juan Carlos LLanas joined the band as a bass player, and after some gigs Oscar could not continue with Chaos Theory. Then Sergio Rojas (PANIK,PSICOFONIA) joined the band as the new drummer, and with this line up the band played again in a some places. Then Roman Quintero, a new guitar player, joined the band, but after a couple of months the band decided to say Otman and Sergio good bye. After some time, the band found in Efrain Ramirez as a drummer and Alex did what had seemed impossible to the band to that moment, he found a new singer: Wendy Garrido. Complete again, the band played again in some shows, many of them very cool but Efrain many of them very cool but Efran started having problems to assist to rehearsals and gigs because of his job, and left the band suddenly. But luckily, the band met Argel Robles (MONOCROMO, JAAM, CARA Y CRUZ, solo proyect: R-hell69 proyect), who joined the band as the new and formerly drummer, intruducing to the band new elements from other music styles giving it a new and fresh sound. Wendy Garrido leaves the band due to personal problems. Mireya Álvarez (MANIFEST OF GLIFIC) joined to the band starting 2009 as the new singer, resulting a total revelation with her hard and dinamic gutural voice and the face that the band needed, she has brought joy and enthusiasm to the band . Nowadays Chaos Theory is giving a several shows all long of Mexico (playing with th best bands of the movement and in venues as the circo volado) and is recording the songs for their debut album."
